

2018 Annual Conference

Purpose, Productivity & Peace

Wednesday, April 4, 2018
11:30 am Registration & Buffet Lunch
Radisson Hotel Harrisburg, Camp Hill

In our overly scheduled, multi-tasking, time-is-money lives, busyness seems to be the new norm. We are constantly plugged in to work. We leave unused vacation time at the end of the year. We are stressed out and often burned out and sometimes unable to focus. The truth is that rejuvenation fosters our productivity and it is proven that we can accomplish MORE in less time when we are rested. Leadership Harrisburg Area has convened local experts to explore Purpose, Productivity, and Peace with us. Please join us for an interactive and meaningful day of learning!

Keynote Speaker
Margee Ensing
 President
 Dickinson College

12:00 – 1:15 pm Keynote Speaker & Awards Luncheon

Margee Ensing is the 29th President of Dickinson College. Among her many accomplishments, she co-founded and led the Adamawa Peace Initiative (API) in response to escalating violence in Nigeria where she served as President of the American University of Nigeria. API successfully promoted peace through education, empowerment and community development while feeding 300,000 refugees fleeing the fighting.

The Extra Mile Award 2018 finalists and winners will be recognized during the luncheon program. Join us in celebrating the exemplary employees and volunteers who seem to work miracles in service to community organizations in Cumberland, Dauphin and Perry Counties.

1:30 – 2:30 pm Plenary I

Una Martone Leadership Harrisburg Area The Purposeful Leader

Once you learn to differentiate between CALLING, PASSION, and PURPOSE, you will be on your way to becoming a more purposeful leader. Here's a hint, it's not about you. It's about your impact on others and the legacy you create. This session will help attendees draft an individual purpose statement that can be instantly implemented.

2:45 – 3:45 pm Plenary 2

Chad Barger Productive Fundraising The Productive Leader

Join master trainer & chief productivity geek, Chad Barger, for a session designed to amplify your personal productivity. During the session, Chad will share over 25 proven techniques to assist you with finding more time, energy and focus during your day...leaving you more time to focus on being a leader!

4:00 – 5:00 pm Plenary 3

Anthony Stultz, Ed.D. Dragonfly Mindful Solutions The Mindful Leader

If you are overburdened, overwhelmed, stressed, or facing difficulties that seem too great to bear, bringing a dose of peace to your life can help. By integrating the insights, techniques and practices of mindfulness, this session will help you to develop personal practices and strategies to attain fullness and freedom in life.
