The Community Caller

The Community Caller is distributed to a targeted list of over 2,500 business and community leaders each month with an average open rate nearly 30%. The purpose of this publication is to connect individuals with opportunities to align with community causes, attend community events, serve on boards of directors, learn more, and volunteer. Highlight your organization in the middle of some great community connections by sponsoring The Community Caller on an annual basis or for one month of your choice.
